

Call for Papers

11th Annual Hedge Fund and Private Equity Research Conference

Liquidity, Risk and Performance

Paris, January 17-18, 2019

Organizers:

Serge Darolles (Université Paris-Dauphine)
René Garcia (University of Montreal and Toulouse School of Economics)
Christian Gouriéroux (University of Toronto and Toulouse School of Economics)
Tamara Nefedova (Université Paris-Dauphine)

This academic meeting will take place in Paris from January 17-18, 2019. Academic sessions will cover the latest research on asset management. We welcome submissions on hedge funds, mutual funds and private equity funds, but also, more broadly, papers that seek to improve the understanding of the role of different market intermediaries and the effect of their behaviour on asset prices.

TOPICS: Potential topics include, but are not limited to: Hedge fund risks and performance; transparency (reporting) and due diligence; hedge fund activity and broad macroeconomic issues such as systemic risk and contagion; hedge fund activism; portfolio liquidation and liquidity; financial regulation; mutual funds, private equity funds; etc.

The organization will make available limited accommodation and travelling grants for doctoral students.

PAPER SUBMISSION PROCEDURE:

- ✓ Submission Deadline: September 30, 2018
- ✓ Submission link and instructions are on the Conference page:
